

CATEGORY 9 — ENTRY FORM OUTSTANDING PROCUREMENT INITIATIVE

This award will go to a team or organisation that has delivered outstanding value for money and social value outcomes in procurement. They will have demonstrated high levels of technical and professional excellence, and created transferable benefits. Judges will be looking for examples that are highly innovative, generate cost savings, support social value outcomes and capture learning that will influence progress in future procurement projects.

Entrants should demonstrate:

- Evidence of measurable results and benefits
- How initiatives and projects achieved more responsive ways of delivering services
- A management approach that has worked towards a definition of social value in the context of procurement, and builds towards successful measurement of social value outcomes

Supporting evidence may include:

- Business cases/plan, tender or RFP documents, illustrations of financial savings without cuts to services, reports demonstrating success, testimonials or press cuttings, names and details of new supplier/s and arrangements.
