

CATEGORY 15 — ENTRY FORM SUSTAINABILITY AND SOCIAL VALUE

This award recognises those organisations or projects that have shown particular impact through sustainability initiatives.

The award will go to the team or project that has, through environmental, social and governance (ESG), sustainability or green initiatives, demonstrated real results – with particular attention being given to those that have demonstrated real social value, a positive impact on the local community and/or strong community engagement.

Entrants should demonstrate:

- Original, innovative and bespoke approaches to sustainability and social value
- Evidence of structure and approach
- Details of how they engaged the local community/local groups throughout
- The outcomes and results
- Ongoing efforts to collaborate with citizens and communities – to deliver increased value

Supporting evidence may include:

- Stakeholder engagement plans, press releases, videos, social media activity, testimonials from citizens, local press reports, peer reviews
