

PublicFinance AWARDS 2024

CATEGORY 14 — ENTRY FORM COLLABORATION AND INNOVATION IN LOCAL SERVICES

Delivering real impact and change in local services requires teams and organisations to think differently and embrace innovation and collaboration. This award recognises those organisations or projects that have demonstrated impact in this way by collaborating across organisational boundaries.

The award will go to the team or project that is successfully collaborating to more closely integrate or align the planning, commissioning and/or delivery of place-based services and sharing resources with the aim of delivering real improvements for citizens and communities and overcoming organisational barriers and silos.

Entrants should demonstrate:

- Original, innovative and bespoke approaches to service alignment
- Evidence of structure and approach as well as governance and finance mechanisms
- The outcomes and results
- Ongoing efforts to align services and deliver increased value.
- Entries are particularly welcome from organisations working across health and social care.

Supporting evidence may include:

- Internal and external plans and reports, press activity, citizen feedback, peer reviews.
