

PublicFinance AWARDS 2024

CATEGORY 3 — ENTRY FORM FINANCE TEAM OF THE YEAR – CENTRAL GOVERNMENT AND NATIONAL BODIES

This award will recognise the finance team (two or more people) working in central government or for a national body that has had the most impact on organisational performance, business partners and/or client groups, and has made an outstanding contribution to building a transparent, innovative, sustainable and collaborative working environment.

Examples of national bodies include central government departments, non-departmental public bodies, agencies and charities with a national focus and reach. The winner will need to demonstrate proactive professional development within a challenging environment and a step change in outcomes.

Entrants should demonstrate:

- Strong team-working and how the team is built, maintained and developed.
- Excellent communication, transparency, openness and a commitment to ethical standards
- The measurable impact of its work on improved financial management for their organisation

Supporting evidence may include:

- Organisation charts, HR information, approved business cases for activities, audited accounts to illustrate financial success, testimonials or press cuttings, team staff survey results.
